

Germany and Austria break into Dubai

November 20, 2008

Panos Kakaviatos in Dubai

Top German and Austrian winemakers flew into Dubai this week, in an attempt to break into the country's blue-chip dominated wine market.

Producers including Schloss Johannisberg, Schloss Vollrads (Germany), Laurenz V and Weingut Bründlmayer (Austria), said they were trying to push knowledge of their flagship Riesling and Gruner Veltliner grapes.