I'm working on a story for the April/May issue of Wine Access Magazine on Grüner Veltliner. During my research I came across this little promo video for Laurenz V, the only winery in the world solely focused on the varietal. Their product is widely available in B.C, but after seeing these stunning visuals that really set the scene for the grape - I have to admit that, just for fun, I checked out some prices on flights...
